

ARKANSAS HBCU BLACK WALL STREET CAREER FEST

Sponsored By Arkansas HBCU's

The Arkansas HBCU Career Services Departments consortium have partnered to bring you Arkansas' first HBCU Black Wall Street Career Fest, again! This event will partner with employers, nonprofits, the military & graduate programs from the community to offer career opportunities to HBCU students and their respective communities.

Friday, April 21, 2023
Start From : 9am - 4pm

Activities

Free Groom and Haircuts by Kappa Upsilon Tau Barber Fraternity, Refreshments, Music, Networking opportunities, Resume and attire assistance

Location

Shorter College Gymnasium
604 N Locust St,
North Little Rock, AR 72114

Contact Information

Kelly Huskey, Director of Career Placement
khuskey@shortercollege.edu

Jovonte Mitchell, Coordinator of Student Engagement
jmitchell@philander.edu

Edmond Davis, Director of Career Services
edmond.davis@arkansasbaptist.edu

Angela Davis, Dean of Student Engagement andavis@philander.edu

The ARKANSAS HBCU BLACK WALL STREET CAREER FEST in its inaugural event was a national first. In 2022, it was received by the Governor of Arkansas Asa Hutchinson, The U.S. Department of Education, HBCU Connect, the White House's Initiative on HBCUs and more.

Made with PosterMyWall.com

